Guidelines for Support to Producers Organizations

National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development (NABARD) has created “Producers Organization Development Fund” to comprehensively support Producer Organizations in different forms across the country.

Producers Organizations:

An organization will be called a producer organization if:

- It is formed by a group of producers for either farm or non-farm activities
- It is a registered body, and a legal entity
- Producers are shareholders in the organization
- It deals with business activities related to the primary produce/product (either of the activities or in combination of these activities, viz. sorting, grading, processing, packaging, marketing etc.)
- It works for the benefit of the member producers
- Portions of profit are shared amongst the producers and the balance goes to the share capital or reserves.

Eligible Organizations:

Any registered Producer organizations i.e., Producer Company, Producer Cooperatives, registered Farmer Federations, MACS (Mutually aided cooperative society), industrial cooperative societies, other registered federations, PACS, etc. Public or private limited company setup by producers are also eligible provided they meet the requirements listed above.

NABARD's interventions:

NABARD will undertake the following interventions:

- 1. Financial Intervention– Financial Assistance to Producer Organizations for term loans or composite loans comprising of both working capital and term loan requirements.
- 2. Capacity Building – NABARD may provide funds to promote organization and skill building exercises, and guide business planning and support technological extension, through classroom training, exposure visits, agricultural university tie ups, expert meetings, etc., NABARD may support capacity building needs in a structured way. Support for capacity building could be in the form of grant, loans, or a combination of these based on the need of the situation.
- 3. Market Linkages – For marketing efforts of the Producer Organization, NABARD will provide credit and/ or grant support for setting up of marketing infrastructure facilities for sale of produce. Producer Organizations can approach NABARD directly or through promoting/ implementing organization, which should also be a registered organization.

Further details including model projects are available in our website www.nabard.org
